

It has been both challenging and inspirational. As a sector more than ever we need to understand our role in leading and managing change.

Richard Hunt, Leading Learning Participant

cultural leadership programme

eBulletin
August 2009

News

Opportunities

CLP Peach Placements

Clore Short Courses

Dynamics of Leadership Coaching

Integrated Leadership

Leadership Development Days

Leadership Development Days Plus

Lead On

Leadership Unleashed

Meeting the Challenge Development Programme

Powerbrokers Leadership Pathways

Sync & Sync 100

Cultural Leadership International (CLI)

CLI is the new British Council led international cultural leadership programme. Working in partnership with the CLP, this innovative programme offers invited applicants the opportunity to take part in an intensive programme of leadership development across Europe, North America, the Middle East and North Africa. For further information see the British Council website

Demos Expressive Lives

In partnership with the CLP, Demos hosted a selected group of cultural leaders at The Royal Opera House to discuss how cultural policy should respond to the current economic climate. Bill Ivey, former advisor to Barack Obama, gave a speech asserting that people should have the chance not just to consume art but to live their own 'expressive life'. The event marked the launch of Expressive Lives, a Demos collection of expert views on cultural policy.

Updates

In September, the CLP will be celebrating its third birthday! Watch this space as we will be launching a new website to include social networks, new features and new resources, as well as a film featuring a diverse range of leaders sharing their thoughts on leadership and the CLP.

CLP is currently seeking hosts for its second round of Artist Practitioner Leadership Development Placements. If you think your organisation would be able to offer a placement to an Artist / Practitioner, please contact: info@culturalleadership.org.uk

Programme snapshots

International Placements for Creative Entrepreneurs (IPCE) are a unique programme of international opportunities led by the British Council and supported by the CLP. Recent participants have now returned from placements within a diverse range of organisations across the globe including Hong Kong, India, China and the UK.

The third Meeting the Challenge Development Programme cohort has now been announced and projects will commence in Autumn 2009. Further information about the five awardees and their projects can be found on the CLP website. The final deadline for applications is 7th September 2009, which will end this CLP funded opportunity for cross partnership, cross sector delivery of leadership development.

The second Leadership Facilitation Skills programme led by Action Learning Associates (ALA) has now been recruited for and will begin this summer. ALA have developed a fascinating case study on Leadership and Action Learning in the Arts which is available to read here. Watch this space for the next Facilitation Skills course which will be open for applications in Autumn 09.

The final Creative Entrepreneurs A Frame event in this year's programme was held at the ICA last month. Entitled 'Figures of Speech' the event included speeches by Hilary Carty, Director, Cultural Leadership Programme and Roland Harwood, Director of Open Innovation, NESTA. Further information can be found on the A Frame website.

Powerbrokers Advance is made up of three innovative programmes: Powerlab led by B3 Media; Hothouse led by Cultural Brokers and Aarohan Ahead led by Sampad. July saw two exciting round up events for Powerlab and Hothouse which included presentations from the participants feeding back on their achievements.

The CLP is delighted to announce the five CLP supported Clore Fellows 2009/10. The Clore Leadership Programme aims to help to train and develop outstanding leaders in the arts.

The CLP is teaming up with the Decibel Performing Arts Showcase to deliver a debate on Disability and Leadership at the Manchester showcase in September. Also, in collaboration with Moya Harris and Sarah Scott, the CLP are delivering the Lead On Disability Conference a unique event with an international dimension, at Cheltenham Town Hall on 22 September 09. For further information and to find out how to register, go to the CLP website.

creative & cultural skills

News photo: Iona Firouzabadi
Programme snapshots photo: Robin Stanley

This email has been sent to you by The Cultural Leadership Programme

Registered name: The Arts Council of England. Trading name: Arts Council England. Charity Number: 1036733 Registered Address: The Arts Council of England, 14 Great Peter Street, London, SW1P 3NQ. Registered: England and Wales

To edit your details/unsubscribe click here